

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For More Information Contact:
Liz Lapidus/ Callie DeVore
Liz Lapidus PR
404-688-1466
Liz@lizlapiduspr.com

HOBNOB NEIGHBORHOOD TAVERN OPENS TODAY
Dinner is Served; Lunch Starts Mon, Feb 22; and Sunday Brunch Starts Sun, Feb 28

ATLANTA (February 19, 2010) – Brothers Gilbert and Sean Yeremyan open their second restaurant, HOBNOB Neighborhood Tavern, at the corner of Piedmont Avenue and Monroe Drive today. Patterned after the neighborhood friendly feel of their Midtown restaurant, Gilbert’s Café and Bar, HOBNOB will follow the simple direction of its name, providing a place to drink sociably.

Located in a former Caribou Coffee, HOBNOB is a neighborhood watering hole featuring comfort pub cuisine. Diners can enjoy “Snacks” such as Soft Pretzels with Warm Cheese & Beer Dip; “Neighborhood Nosh” including Southern Spring Rolls, with slow roasted pork, cider braised collard greens and cherry mustard marmalade; “Tavern Specialties” featuring burgers and pizzas; “Entrees” including Pork Shank braised in Sweetwater 420; and “Midnight Specials,” such as The-Dollar-Make-You-Holler Hot Dog. All menu items list recommended beer and wine pairings.

HOBNOB offers an extensive craft beer selection, including high gravity beers, as well as an attainable wine list and a full bar. The cocktail list features house-infused vodkas, pitchers of margaritas and handmade milkshakes. HOBNOB plans to offer beer dinners, beer tastings and flights of beer.

HOBNOB is a 78-seat restaurant with a 20-seat bar, 28 seats in the dining room and 28 seats on two heated patios. Restaurants Consulting Group designed this former gas station, with an emphasis on open space, featuring a glass garage door opening the dining room up to the patio.

Located at 1551 Piedmont Avenue, Hobnob will be open for dinner nightly as well as Midnight Specials, with lunch starting Monday, February 22 and Sunday brunch starting Sunday, February 28. Complimentary valet parking will be available on Monroe Drive. For online reservations, catering or to book at private party, please go to www.hobnobatlanta.com or call 404.968.2288.

###