SAY OLÉ OLÉ OLÉ: HOBNOB SCORES FOUR NEW FLAT SCREEN TVS
IN TIME FOR THE FIFA WORLD CUP 2010
Diners Can Cheer on Their Favorite Teams on Three Patios

ATLANTA (May 14, 2010) – With over 2 million tickets sold for the FIFA 2010 World Cup games, HOBNOB Neighborhood Tavern brings the popular “football” matches here in high-tech style. Four new flat screens are positioned on three outdoor patios, where the games commence Friday, June 11 with South Africa vs Mexico and Uruguay vs. France. Fans of all nations are welcome to enjoy the Classic Margherita Pizza as they cheer on Italy or the Lamb Burger when they root for Greece. In fact – there’s something for every fan on this comfort pub cuisine menu and extensive beer list. Olè!
